

cc#2

Jan. 2nd, 1925.

Circular Letter No. 72.

To Supervisors of Schools and American Teachers.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

SPANISH COURSE FOR AMERICAN TEACHERS.

Dates of examinations.- This year the examinations will be held on the following dates:

First semester, January 31, 1925 at 8:00 A.M.

Second semester, June 6, 1925, at 8:00 A.M.

Two hours will be granted for each written examination.

Place of examinations.- The districts' headquarters. In San Juan the examinations will be held in the Baldorioty School. In case of change of place, candidates will be duly notified.

Number of examinations permitted at one time.- Candidates may take two examinations at one time. These may be the two examinations of one course, or one semester from one course and another from the following, but nobody is permitted to take an advanced course unless he is taking or has taken the previous course.

A change in the course of studies.- The outline of work for the first semester of the intermediate course has been changed as follows:

First Semester

Grammar: Review First Spanish Course, Hills and Ford.

Reading: Doña Perfecta

Antología de Cuentos Castellanos.

Teachers who have been unable to provide themselves with the Spanish Course by Hills and Ford have been authorized to present the written work of Coester's Grammar.

A blank enclosed.- The enclosed blank should be filled out and returned to this office on or before the 15th of January. Sets of questions will be sent only to those districts where candidates have announced their desire to take the examinations thru the office of the Supervisor of Schools, as hereby requested.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) JUAN B. HUYKE